Training Instructor

Extension Homemakers heard an area Training Instructor of the Arkansas Children's Colony in Conway give a description of the training being offered for the mentally retarded. Mrs. Lester Kent introduced Mrs. Wanda McCartney who gave a colored slide presentation to sixth club members at the spring meeting of the Extension Homemaker Council April 27.

Mrs. McCartney described mental retardation as being below the level of average functioning. The instructor divided the retarded in three categories — educable, trainable, and profoundly retarded. From the training received many of the children return home capable of helping family, helping financially, or even becoming independent workers. Mrs. McCartney said a plus factor of the colony was that the children were accepted in the environment, whereas rejected many times in home and community.

The instructor gave three causes of retardation: before birth, at birth and after birth. She announced the colony had cooperated in finding a vaccine now available for preventing German measles that has been a cause of many cases of retardation occurring before birth.

Hempstead County was reported to have eight children at the colony. Some of the Extension clubs send gifts to chosen children on occasions throughout the year.

Mrs. Gene Pendergraft encouraged the homemakers to expand beyond their present circle of capabilities and interests. She gave a humorous book review, "Father Against the Devil" by Edward Gifford as an example of reading for pleasure.

Mrs. M. S. Riley stressed the value of the mind in the meeting of devotion.

The homemakers heard a projection of the state program presented by Mrs. Verner McMurtrey, council president, in a report of the State Extension Homemakers Board of Directors Meeting.

The homemakers took a tour of the 4-H Club House by way of colored slides presented by the home demonstration agent, Dolores McBride. Miss McBride said the house was owned by Extension Homemaker Clubs and was built so outstanding 4-H members could live near the University campus at reduced expense. The house is equipped modernly for 42 girls.

Mrs. Thomas Williams reported a successful sale of the cookbooks to assist with projects of council.

Mrs. Ernest Graham and Mrs. Neil Osborn assisted with recreation and singing. Melrose Club assisted with registration.

The spring meeting introduced Arkansas Extension Homemakers Week, May 1-7. The homemakers are encouraging a Home Beautification Campaign during the week, says Mrs. McMurtrey.

Student Talks of Stripping Sukarno

By T. JEFF WILLIAMS
JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The student organizer slouched on a wooden bench as he talked about the future of President Sukarno and of Indonesia. He talked with seeming nonchalance of stripping away Sukarno's many titles — like so many old clothes — and of "putting the old man on a shelf out of reach."

The organizer is not a student. Technically he is an engineer, in his early 30s. But he is really a political man. He spoke casually but carefully. The impact of his words was supported by action in the streets: the students were finished with the bung — brother — as President Sukarno is called. They were a new generation.

The husky organizer, who asked to be identified only by the alias of Li, went on:

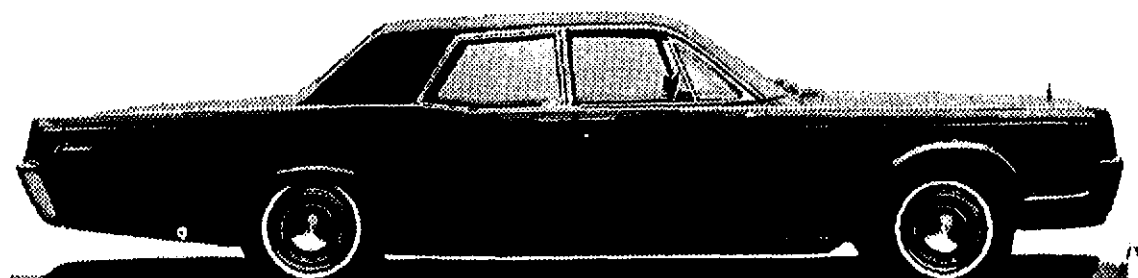

Wednesday, May 4, 1966

"We are going to take away from the bung most of his titles. They were given to him illegally, by a Provisional Peoples Consultative Congress that had no right to make such decisions. We will take away from him his presidency for life and his right to rule by decrees."

"We will strip him of his clothing until he stands there in his undershorts and singlet. No more ribbons for the bung."

As recently as three months ago such words would not have been spoken, even among friends. But in the past three weeks, the campaign to reduce the one-man power of Sukarno, who ruled this nation for more than 20 years, has accelerated. Papers now openly poke fun at him, openly say Indonesia should go back to the United Nations, even though Sukarno slouts it will never go back unless the United Nations is reorganized.

The drive is against the control Sukarno holds — not so much against the man himself. It has been spearheaded by students and tacitly supported by military rulers.

HELEN HELP US!

Supreme Self-Confidence
Dear Helen: I want to make some woman the happiest girl in the world by marrying her. I have everything a woman could want, including a good head, 200 chickens indoor plumbing, and am I not hard to look at. Please send by return mail — GENTLEMAN FARMER
P. S. Good looking, please.

Dear G. Farmer: Sorry. The postage would break me. I'm not a match-maker — it is too risky, trying to get unknown people together, object matrimony. Besides, a man of your self-confidence SHOULD need only a club — to fight 'em off. — H.

Dear Helen: Is there a way to get out of this problem gracefully? I'll be looking for your answer in the paper.

Our neighbors will call and ask if we are going to the Pavilion. When we say Yes, they invite themselves. In the past 4 years they have done this every time they've heard about a so-called affair. We didn't mind when they first moved here, but we do not enjoy their company. They discuss their personal sex life and tell dirty stories, which embarrass us greatly. Tell us what to do. — Adult Problem

Dear A.P.: You've already done it — hat is, if your neighbors read the paper. Writing a letter to a columnist is an effective way to rid yourself of pests — but not "graceful." Now are you happy? — H.

Seventy-Six Recipes Looking For A Home
Dear Helen: You said "In eight years of tossing out questions to my wise and witty readers, this is the first time I've drawn a blank" — and so to keep your record unblemished, I'm sending you my prize recipe for Irish Soda Cake made with Beer. — Penna.

P. S. It's terrific — try it! Dear Penna: Yours was the first. Since then my wise and witty readers have showered down 76 soda-beer cake recipes — plus several for beer biscuits, beer soup, and even a beer-based formula for washing woodwork.

My record is saved, but what am I going to do with 76 recipes? (And they're still pouring in).

Tell you what, readers, I'll share the wealth — if you'll send me your stamped, self-addressed envelopes, each of you will receive a recipe, until the supply runs dry.

And if you know how to bake an "onion cake," and a Easter cake called "casatiello," send the information along. I keep telling people this is not a food column, but they keep right on asking questions. —H.

Dear Helen: "Must everybody

Practice Was Terrible, Broyles Says

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks showed more defense — or less offense — Tuesday as they began their fourth week of spring football practice.

Coach Frank Broyles had an opinion about the practice: "Terrible."

"We accomplished the least today that we have all spring," he said.

The defense, which yielded 12 touchdowns last week during a goal-line scrimmage, three times rose up to stop the offense within the 15-yard line Tuesday.

Bruce Maxwell scored the only touchdown of the day on a three-yard run. David Dickey had picked up most of the ground in the TD march.

Kerr and Bianchi to Coach Bulls

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — New head Coach John (Red) Kerr and his assistant coach and long-time friend, Al Bianchi, came to the Chicago Bulls in a sort of squeeze play in the National Basketball Association.

Kerr and Bianchi, signed to three-year contracts Tuesday, were among 18 players called by the new Chicago NBA entry in a draft from the league's nine established clubs in New York last weekend.

But Kerr and Bianchi, who spent most of their long pro careers as roommates with the Old Syracuse Nats — now the Philadelphia 76ers — will be strictly bench coaches for the Bulls.

Marichal Gets Through His Critical Game

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Moment of Truth was just another fling for Juan Marichal. It lasted nine innings too long for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

San Francisco's Marichal, confronted by the Dodgers for the first time in regular-season play since his bat-swinging brawl with catcher John Roseboro last fall, tamed them on four scorching hits Tuesday night as the Giants rolled to an 8-1 victory.

Backed by Willie McCovey's three-run homer off Don Drysdale and a four-run seventh-inning salvo, Marichal breezed to his fifth straight complete-game triumph this season and beat the Dodgers for the 11th time in 11 decisions at Candlestick Park.

The victory moved the Giants past Los Angeles into second place in the National League race.

Marichal, fined $1,750 and suspended for 11 days after clubbing Roseboro with a bat last Aug. 22, passed the initial test without incident.

Roseboro, who has a lawsuit pending against the Giants' ace, got one of the Dodger hits. He had hit an inside-the-park home run against Marichal in an exhibition game this spring.

Roseboro and Marichal had nothing to say to each other during the game.

Elsewhere, first place Pittsburgh shaded Cincinnati 5-4 in 12 innings on Donn Clendenon's second two-run homer of the game. Atlanta edged Philadelphia 9-8 in 10 innings. St. Louis trimmed New York 5-2 and Houston mauled Chicago 10-2.

Cleveland nipped New York 1-0, Washington blanked Baltimore 3-0, Detroit slugged Boston 8-0, Minnesota beat Chicago 4-2 and California downed Kansas City 6-2 in American League games.

Clendenon's second homer off Cincinnati's Sammy Ellis, a two-out shot over the center field fence, lifted the Pirates past the Reds in the 12th and enabled the m to stay one-half game up on San Francisco. The winning blow, following a single by Jim Pagliaroni, snapped a 3-3 tie. The Reds countered with a run in the bottom of the inning off winner Elroy Face.

The Pirates took a 3-2 lead in the eighth on Clendenon's first two-run blast but Cincinnati tied it in its half on a run-scoring single by Mel Queen.

Felipe Alou, whose three-base error on a fly ball helped Philadelphia to three runs and an 8-6 lead in the eighth, singled home the winning run with two out in the 10th. Woody Woodward beat out a bunt and was sacrificed to second before Alou came through.

Gary Geiger, who had homered earlier, sent the game into extra innings with a two-run triple in the Braves' eighth, tying it 8-8.

Reliever Al Jackson, a former Met, set down all 12 batters he faced to nail the Cardinals' victory over New York. St. Louis jumped in front to stay with three runs in the fourth — two on Lou Brock's double — but the Mets knocked out Ray Washburn with two runs in the fifth.

Jackson then slammed the door while the Cards wrapped it up with three more runs in their half of the fifth.

The Astros won their third straight as Lee Maye pounded his third homer in three games. Joe Morgan drove in three runs with a homer and single and the Cubs contributed five unearned runs by committing four errors.

Public Concerned About Fgn. Policy

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — "Probably more people are concerned about foreign policy than at any time since we were involved in a full-scale war, and yet few feel entirely right about what we have," says the president of the League of Women Voters, Mrs. Robert J. Stuart.

Detroit to Need 100 Per Cent

By BERNIE KENNEDY
Associated Press Sports Writer

MONTREAL (AP) — It will take more than a 100 per cent healthy Roger Crozier to save the Detroit Red Wings now.

Crozier, a doubtful starter after suffering a knee and ankle injury on his left leg Sunday, went back into the nets Tuesday night.

But even the appearance of the gutty goalie failed to perk up the listless Red Wings who offered little resistance as Montreal charged to a comfortable early lead and coasted to a 5-1 victory and take a 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven Stanley Cup finals.

Yanks Victim of Tiant's 3rd Shutout

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Luis Tiant has lost his paunch and now he's robbing American League hitters of their punch.

Tiant's third straight shutout, a 1-0 four-hitter against the New York Yankees Tuesday night, left the Cleveland right-hander with a string of 27 scoreless innings and a perfect 0.00 earned run average.

The Cuban nitcher credits his success to a slender waistline.

Luis had a 10-4 rookie record in only 2½ months when he came up in 1964. Then he fell off to 11-11 last year. Birdie Tebbets, the Indians' manager, decided excess weight was Tiant's problem.

"Birdie sent me a letter after last season," Tiant explained. "He says a fat ball player can not stay long in big leagues because he can't do too many things."

The letter put Luis on a diet. His third straight shutout was the fifth this season for the Indians' staff and lowered its collective earned run average to a microscopic 1.41.

Tiant's job was one of four top pitching efforts in the American League Tuesday night. Detroit's Mickey Lolich hurled a five-hitter in shutting out Boston 8-0, Phil Ortega and Casey Cox combined to blank Baltimore 3-0 for Washington and Camilo Pascual's four-hitter paced Minnesota to a 4-2 decision over Chicago. California downed Kansas City 6-2 in the other game played.

In the National League, San Francisco whipped Los Angeles 8-1, St. Louis downed New York 5-2, Atlanta nipped Philadelphia 9-8 in 10 innings. Pittsburgh shaded Cincinnati 5-4 in 12 and Houston walloned Chicago 10-2.

Tiant got therun he needed on three seventh-inning singles, the last by his catcher, Joe Azcu. Luis got a ninth-inning scare when, with two on and two out, Joe Pepiton elined a ball that just curved foul as it reached the right field stands.

Lolich, who struck out nine, was locked in a scoreless duel for five innings with Boston's Jose Santiago. But the Tigers exploded for six runs in the sixth and Lolich breezed after that.

Norm Cash hammered three hits, including a two-run homer, for Detroit.

Baltimore's 10-game winning streak came to an end with Ortega and Cox combining for a five-hitter. Ortega worked the first seven innings before leaving with a pulled muscle in his right shoulder and Cox finished up.

Frank Howard whacked a two-run homer for the Senators. Zoilo Versalles' three-run homer gave Pascual his victory over the White Sox. Chicago had tagged him for three hits and a pair of first-inning runs, but the veteran right-hander allowed just one more hit and retired 26 of the last 27 batters he faced.

Tony Oliva had a first-inning homer for Minnesota.

Bob Rodgers' three-run double helped California build an relievers.

Stanky Says Stolen Base Big Weapon

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The stolen base has become a more effective weapon in major league baseball this season, particularly since Eddie Stanky has his Chicago White Sox taking chances in their old Go-Go style.

With the Sox setting the pace, the 1966 stolen base output is up 24 per cent over last year. There had been 163 steals through Monday's games compared to 131 in a similar number of games in 1965.

The White Sox, who had only four steals in their first 14 games under Al Lopez last year, have 17 under manager Eddie Stanky. This represents the largest club increase.

The American League team first accommodated the Go-Go

Wednesday, May 4, 1966

urgings of its fans in 1959 when it stole 101 bases, more than twice the number of any other AL team, and won the pennant. Last year, pennant-winning Los Angeles and Minnesota went on the Go-Go kick, with the Dodgers stealing 172 bases and the Twins 92.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, currently heading the National League standings, are runners up to the White Sox in stolen base increase. The Pirates, with 13 thefts, have nine more than last year.

Houston, led by rookie shortstop Sonny Jackson, is up several stolen bases. Detroit and the New York Yankees also show an increase of seven while the California Angels are six ahead of their 1965 pace.

The New York Mets and Philadelphia Phillies have four more steals than last year. The St. Louis Cards are three ahead.

The Dodgers lead both circuits in stolen bases with 18. But they are one behind last year's pace.

Make China Change, Says Humphrey

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said today that only when Communist China does an about face on aggressive policies should she be considered for United Nations membership.

Humphrey, who has staunchly supported President Johnson's Asian policies, expressed this view after Sens. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., and George McGovern, D-S.D., proposed in the Senate Tuesday the creation of a high-level commission to reassess U.S. relations with China.

Kennedy suggested it might be possible to work out an arrangement by which mainland China and Taiwan could have seats in the world organization. McGovern called for an end to U.S. opposition to China's admission, with the international body to determine Formosa's status.

Without direct reference to these proposals, Humphrey was asked in an interview what he believes U.S. policy should be with regard to admission of Communist China.

He replied: "When Communist China is willing to consider membership in the U.N. on the basis of abiding by the charter, being a peace-loving nation, a nation that will respect the principles of the charter, and also when she ceases to insist that Formosa be handed over to her lock, stock and barrel, then she would surely be a likely candidate for the U.N."

Humphrey went on to say, however, that mainland China had never applied for U.N. membership except with demands for revision of the present charter.

Later this year, one of the students will accompany Rev. Benson to Nigeria to act as his church and school relations in Uye in Eastern Nigeria.

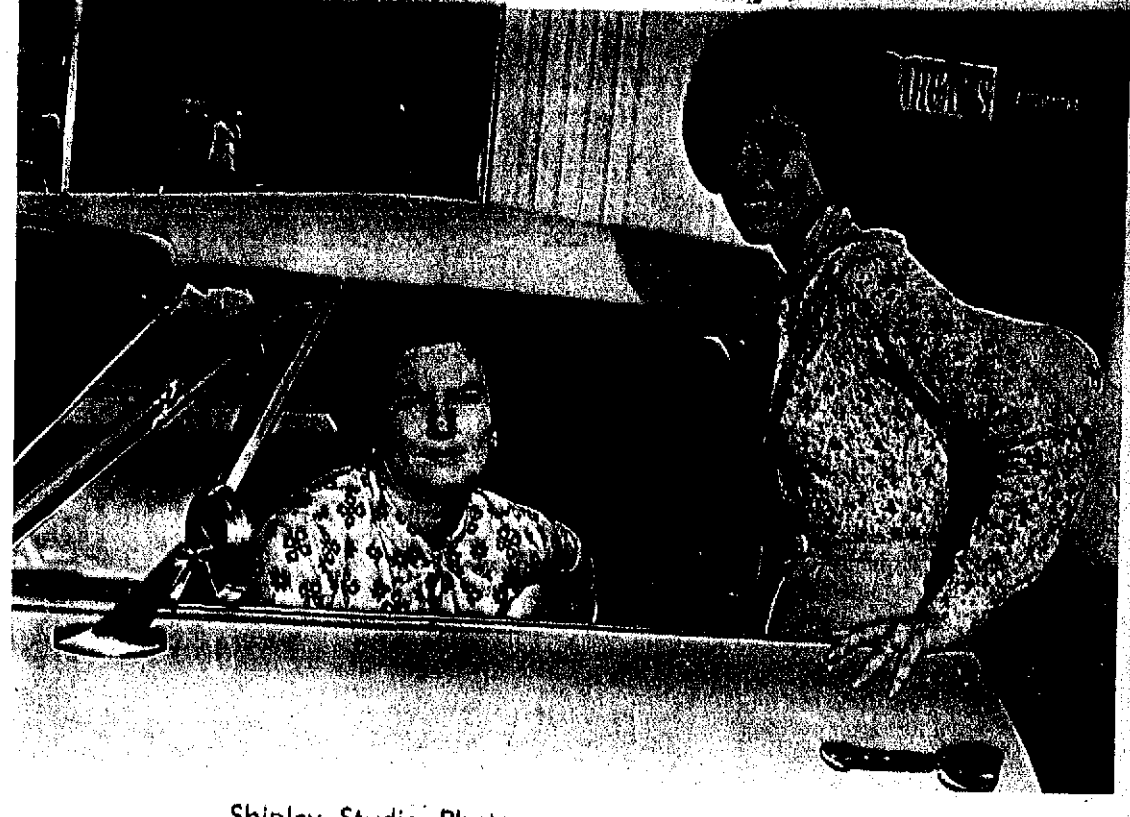

The Christian Zion Churches of Eastern Nigeria are now affiliated with the Free Christian Zion Church of Christ in America. Rev. Benson is the chief pastor of the group.

In correspondence with Rev. E. E. Uwah of Eastern Nigeria, Rev. Benson was advised that the Christian Zion Churches there had a 45 acre plot and three buildings for the beginning of a church-related school program. The school is known as Kennedy Memorial College. Rev. Benson said the churches in the U. S. A. would help support the Nigerian College. This support is required by the Nigerian Education Department before the Kennedy Memorial College has Nigerian approval.

His mission to Nigeria will in relation to that financial support from the church in the U. S. A., Rev. Benson said.

The 78 years old preacher and owner of Benson's Nursing Home said he would fly to Nigeria, accompanied by his son, within about sixth days. He will conduct church meetings while in Nigeria. Mrs. Gladys Neal, Reporter.

Probably more books have been written about birds than any other member of the animal world. There are between 10,000 and 12,000 living species of birds, and human curiosity about them is greater than ever. It is estimated that, in North America, 250,000 persons own at least one book about birds. In Great Britain, the figure is 100,000 persons. In the latter nation, one book about birds is published every week.

| Opening lead—♦ Q | | | |

"Here is a hand that really illustrates both bidding and play," said Jim, and the following dialog ensued.

Oswald: "South has a normal but strong opening no-trump. North's two club response asks South to show a four-card major. North might have jumped directly to four hearts but it was easy for South to go to game over three hearts."

Jim: "South has to be careful and duck the diamond lead. If he wins the first trick, East will eventually get in with the king and lead a spade. In that case the combination of both spade honors and the king of hearts in the West hand will cost South his contract."

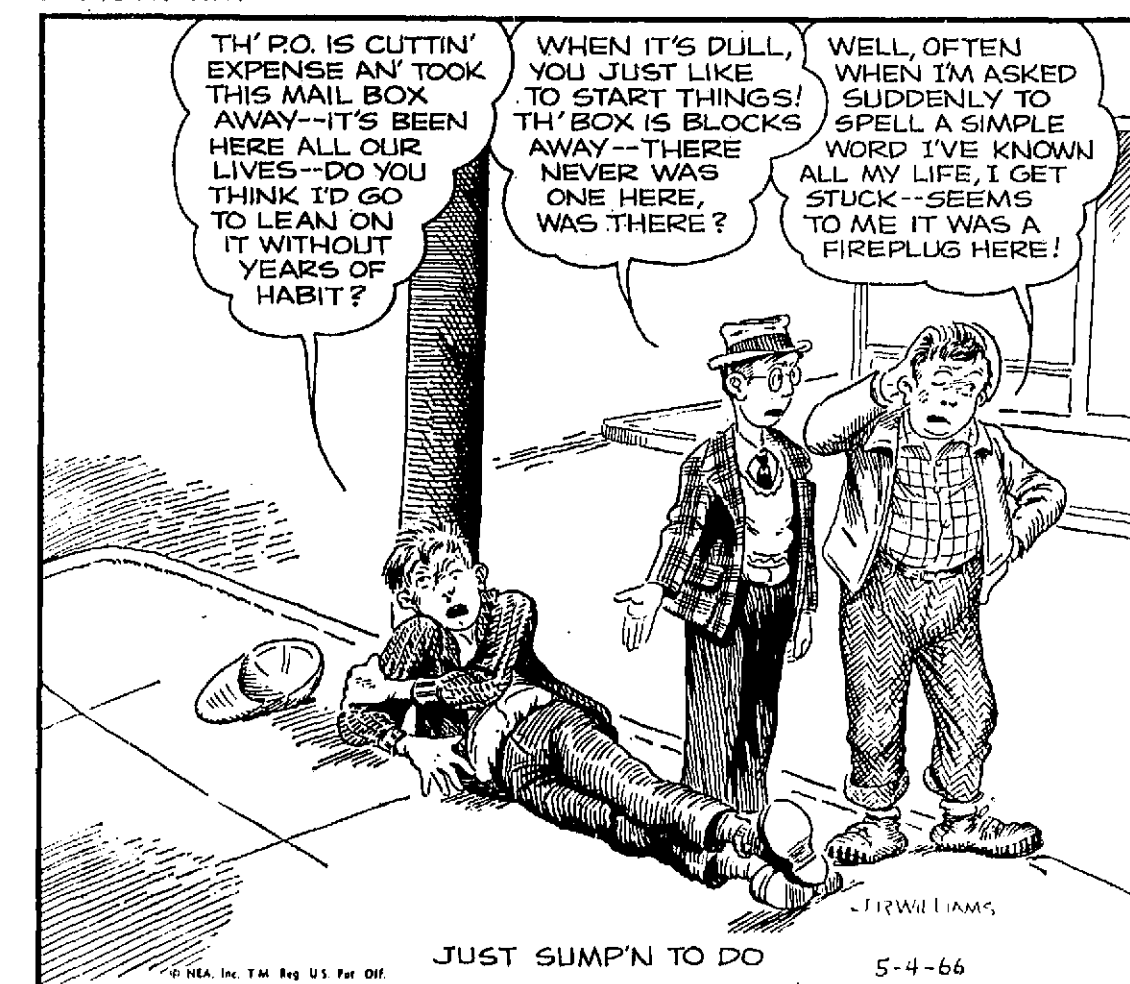

Oswald: "Those three cards are surely misplaced but correct technique saves South's bacon for him. He ducks the first diamond and wins the second. Then he enters dummy with the ace of clubs to try a trump finesse but must be careful to lead his seven of clubs, not his three spot. The trump finesse loses and West returns a trump. South draws a third round of trumps and runs off his clubs. He is able to win the fourth club in dummy because he has retained his three spot."

Jim: "He leads a spade and can spread his hand. At this point it makes no difference where the king and queen of spades are. They are in back of the ace, South ducks the spade to West and he must either lead back a spade or give South a ruff and discard."

Oswald: "Had North played the hand at four hearts a spade lead would have led to his defeat. The hand was unbeatable when played by South."

Tall Grass and Some of Its Surprises

On Saturday we fill up this column with the opinions of other editors, and sometimes in the middle of the week, too — for a country editor has lots of things to do, and the writing of mere opinion is almost last on the list of newspaper necessities.

For instance, Managing Editor Paul H. Jones said this morning, "Man, we've really had a run of pictures!" Which, as I ought to know, is the understatement of the year — for your editor is the fellow who turns them in to production negatives. We had pictures running out of our ears Monday and Tuesday, and again today, and that's why there was no local opinion yesterday.

But I had some news for you, already a couple of days overdue, and here's where I come through with it.

In the "back 40" behind my house the grass is getting so tall you can scarcely see the wild Mallard ducks and geese. And tall grass usually springs a surprise. It was sprung on me a couple of days ago.

I had been keeping a suspenseful eye on a huge nest with 17 goose eggs in it, where absolutely nothing had happened except a desultory setting first by a Canadian Honker and then a native white goose. But while I was wasting my time watching this nest I heard from a couple more I knew nothing about.

Out of the tall grass walked two Mallard hens, one with three ducklings, the other with five — all of them only a day or two old.

I scooped up one, and promptly was charged and flogged by mamma. I put the youngster in a ventilated cigar-box and came up town to show off my proof of Spring.

An old wives' tale has it that when men touch the offspring of wild creatures they abandon their young. But it's not so with Mallard hens. She took the little fellow back readily enough — but got revenge on me nevertheless.

She and the other hen hid out in the tall grass, and I haven't seen hens or ducklings in two days. I am the victim of a unanimous vote of no confidence.

Communists Declare Mao Is Very Well

TOKYO (AP) — Denying foreign speculation that Red China's top man is seriously ill, Peking's foreign ministry said today that Communist leader Mao Tse-tung "is very well."

"Rumors of Chairman Mao's physical condition are quite nonsense and malicious, false rumors of imperialism," the foreign ministry said in a statement reported by the Peking correspondent of the Japanese news agency, Kyodo.

Mao's absence from public view has resulted in wide speculation in the West that he might be seriously ill.

"The whereabouts of Chairman Mao is unknown even in Peking," Kyoto correspondent Tadao Saito reported. "However, it appears certain that Mao was resting in warm central China away from Peking since late last year until early this year."

In New York, an informant who declined to be identified said he saw Mao on Feb. 28 at the Peking airport when Kwame Nkrumah, the deposed president of Ghana, left for Moscow.

Mao did not make a speech, the witness said, but he shook hands with Nkrumah and did not appear ill. He added that the 72-year-old Chinese leader walked without assistance.

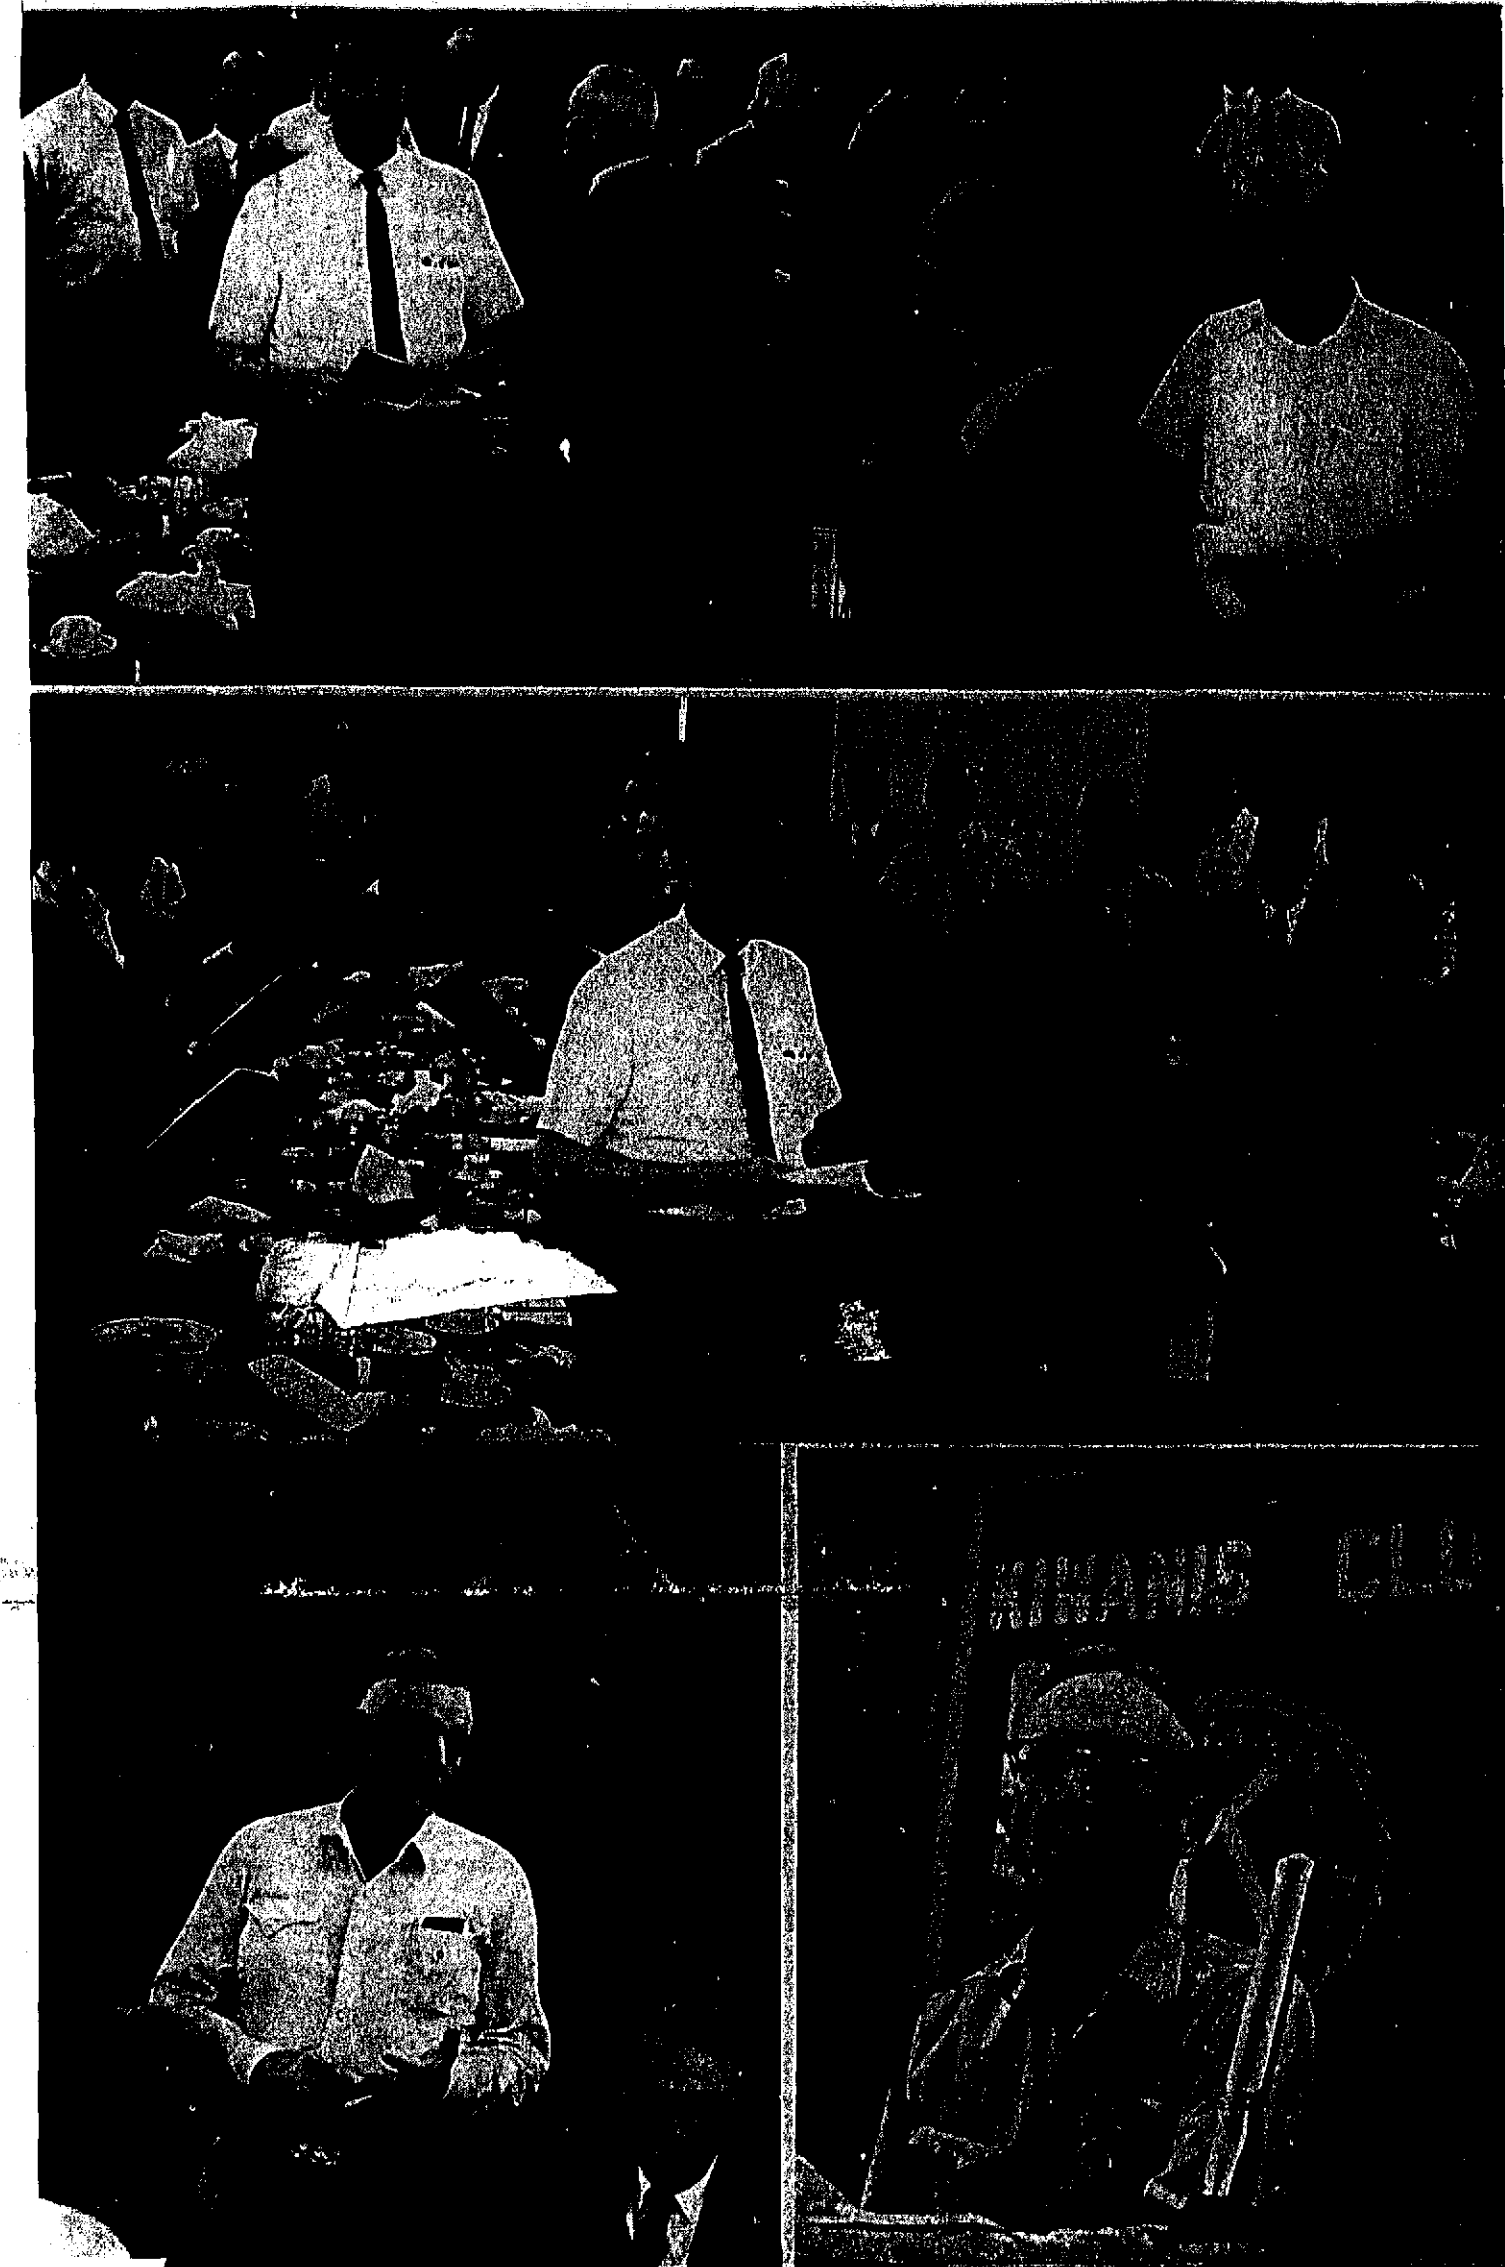

Astronauts to Have Hot Water

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Astronauts on the upcoming Apollo moon projects can look forward to hot water with their meals, something unheard of in Mercury and Gemini crewmen's diets.

Dr. Charles A. Berry, chief of center medical programs of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said that the dried food will be reconstituted with hot water rather than the cold water used for previous meals.

Dr. Berry explained that hot food requires less energy to digest than cold food.

Detergents Have Created a Smell

TROY, N.Y. (AP) — Scientists at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute are at work to remove the smell created by detergents in city sewers.

Dr. Nicholas L. Ciescieri, an assistant professor of environmental engineering at RPI said Tuesday the research is aimed at developing a method to rid sewage of phosphorous, a common element of synthetic detergents.

Phosphorous, he said, acts as a food for certain algae — including the smell-producing kind.

Finally Places News on Page 1

LONDON (AP) — The venerable Times of London, after devoting its front page to advertisements for 181 years, turned over a new leaf today and filled the space with news.

In a further break with nearly two centuries of tradition, the Times introduced a women's page and a gossip column to attract new readers.

WASHINGTON (AP) — About 250 persons enjoyed an evening of fellowship and humor Monday at the 10th annual Arkansas State Reception and Dinner.

Bombers Hit Supply Route of Viet Cong

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — American B52 bombers pounded the southern end of the main Viet Cong supply route again today in the continuing drive to cripple the Communists' expected monsoon offensive.

For the seventh out of the past eight days, the Stratofortresses unloaded their 750-pound bombs on suspected enemy supply and troop areas in the Communist C Zone about 65 miles northwest of Saigon and not far from the Cambodian border.

This area is regarded as the southern terminal of the Ho Chi Minh jungle trail over which the Reds send supplies and men from the north.

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP) — A Denver, Colo., man said his car radio was stolen last week in Las Vegas, Nev., but the thieves left the sound.

Edward Doran said during a stopover in Grand Junction on a return trip to Denver from California that when his car goes faster than 50 miles an hour he hears a folksinger's voice coming from under the instrument panel.

Bittle Will Address Farm Bureau

The Hempstead County Farm Bureau Board of Directors meeting will be held on Thursday night, May 5, according to Lester Kent, president. The meeting will be held in the Farm Bureau office beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Cecil Bittle, Assistant Director in charge of the Southwest Branch Experiment Station, will be the guest speaker. Mr. Bittle will discuss research work that is being conducted at the station.

Mr. Kent urges all interested persons to attend.

City Music Festival Thursday

Some 250 persons will perform at the city-wide music festival in Hammons Stadium Thursday, May 5 at 7:30 p.m. There will be no admission fee. "American Music" will be the theme of the program which will climax the local observance of National Music Week, sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs and the Friday Music Club of Hope.

Those who will be participating are: Boy Scouts of America, who will perform Indian Ceremonial Dances under the direction of Jerry O'Neal; Girl Scout of America, who will have the opening flag ceremony; special numbers by first grade students at Brookwood and Garland Schools; square dancers from Paisley School; the Hope High Band and Junior and Senior High Choirs; and the Friday Music Club Choral Club.

This promises to be one of the highlights of National Music Week, and citizens of Hope are urged to come and support the local music program.

Opposition to Rights Bill to Be Tough

By JOHN BECKLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — For the fourth time in five years Congress begins considering a major civil rights bill today and there are signs this one faces the toughest opposition.

The action starts in the House, with Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach appearing before a House Judiciary subcommittee but the big trouble is in the Senate.

There, the outspoken opposition of Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen to a provision that would ban religious or racial discrimination in the sale, rental or financing of housing apparently has broken up the bipartisan coalition that wrote the earlier civil rights bills into law.

Republican leaders in the House are playing it much more cautiously, however. Dirksen based his opposition on his belief that the housing provision is unconstitutional. His GOP colleagues in the House are making no such statements.

Rep. William H. McCulloch, R-Ohio, senior Republican on the judiciary committee and the party's key figure in civil rights legislation, said he would not prejudice the issue of constitutionality.

Negroes in Alabama Are Nominated

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Negroes won nomination for at least one Alabama legislative seat and went into runoff for five others, perhaps more. They led for sheriff in three counties.

As the returns from Tuesday's primary continued to come in, it was clear the H. R. S. Gray, a Negro attorney from Tuskegee, had been nominated for the Legislature from the district that includes Gov. George C. Wallace's home town.

He is the first Negro nominee for an Alabama House seat since Reconstruction. He had a 206-vote majority over two white opponents in the predominantly Negro district.

And in Jefferson County (Birmingham) four Negroes, facing more than one white opponent each, led for House seats and go into a runoff May 31. The total of their white opponents' votes exceeded their own, making the prospect of runoff victories uncertain.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. hailed the "overwhelming turnout of Negro voters and the election of Negro candidates to key positions throughout the state" as "a new day in Alabama."

WASHINGTON
For the fourth time in five years, Congress begins consideration of a major civil rights bill. There are signs this one faces the toughest competition.

A presidential committee meets amid inklings that the White House may consider new anti-inflation machinery to placate labor and business dissatisfaction with wage-price guide lines.

Millwood to Reach 269' by Friday

On Saturday, April 29, about 4:30 p.m. the two sluices beneath the Millwood Spillway and six of the thirteen flood gates were closed for flood control of Little River.

This action was taken to reduce the flooding on Red River even though the Millwood Reservoir is not scheduled for full operation until June 1966, says Otis K. Higgenbotham, Resident Engineer.

The initial operating pool for the reservoir will be elevation 257 after formal closure. The forecast for the pool is to reach elevation 268 to 269 on this coming Friday, May 6th, provided there is not additional rainfall. This will be 11 to 12 feet above the normal pool.

Landowners below the dam can expect an increase in flow from the spillway as soon as a Red River drops below flood stage at Fulton. The reservoir will be drained to allow completion of the railroad salvage operations upstream.

The Millwood pool elevation at noon, Monday May 2nd, was 265.7 with eight flood gates closed and five full open. The outflow was about 20,000 cubic feet per second.

Stunning Win in Alabama for Mrs. Wallace

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Wallaces of Alabama, symbols of old-time segregation, have chalked up a victory of surprise proportions despite all efforts of civil rights forces to stop them.

Lurleen Wallace, blonde, 39-year-old mother of four, thumped nine male candidates so thoroughly in Tuesday's Democratic primary that there will be no runoff for the party's gubernatorial nomination.

Outdistanced badly was Alabama Atty. Gen. Richmond Flowers, a racial moderate who had criticized Gov. George C. Wallace for his tactics. Flowers had counted on depriving Mrs. Wallace of a clear majority, and thus forcing a runoff.

But it was not to be and — provided Mrs. Wallace wins the November election — her husband will still be the top power in Alabama, making the decisions for his wife as a $1-a-year aide. By law, he is barred from succeeding himself officially.

Choosing words from her husband's lexicon, Mrs. Wallace told a victory celebration of supporters: "We will continue to stand up for Alabama. We renew our pledge to continue the type of government which apparently has been endorsed today."

Negro voters in Alabama — their number doubled under the federal voting rights act of 1965 — turned out in long lines, but so did whites.

One result of the Negro surge was the apparent nomination for the Alabama House of Representatives of attorney Fred D. Gray of Tuskegee, first Negro nominee for the legislature since Reconstruction. Three other candidates of his race were ahead for legislative seats.

Other primary results: Alabama — Sen. John J. Sparkman, Democrat, won re-nomination by a large margin.

Indiana — In a feature race for the U.S. House, Republicans Ralph Harvey and Richard L. Roubush were locked in close combat for re-nomination. Both are now congressmen but were thrown into the new 10th District by revamping of legislative lines.

New Mexico — Gene Lusk of Carlsbad won the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, beating former Gov. John Burroughs handily. David Cargo held a razor-thin lead over Clifford Hawley for the Republican nomination. Both are state representatives.

Ohio — Gov. James A. Rhodes, Republican, sept to a easy re-nomination. State Sen. Frazier Reams Jr., 36, won the Democratic nomination for governor.

Oklahoma — Former Gov. Raymond Gary chalked up a big lead in a 13-man contest for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Still up in the air was the question who would face him in the runoff, Tulsa County Atty. David Hall or Oklahoma City Atty. Preston Moore, a former national commander of the American Legion. In the Republican primary, State Sen. Dewey Martlett of Tulsa pulled somewhat ahead of John N. Happy Camp, Waukomis banker.

Will Ask LBJ to Veto Bills Over Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — The leader of a House Republican campaign to cut appropriations called on President Johnson today to veto money bills that exceeded his budget.

As an alternative, Rep. Frank T. Bow of Ohio, senior Republican on the House Appropriations Committee, suggested Johnson send some of his experienced arm-twisters like Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien to the Capitol to help hold the line.

Only Tuesday, the House Armed Services Committee voted almost $1 billion in excess of the President's budget request for military procurement.

Bow's comments were in a speech prepared for House consideration of a bill appropriating $10,555,342,500 to the Labor Department and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare for the fiscal year starting July 1.
